We use a Sliding Scale model to make our teaching events affordable for all individuals. A Sliding Scale works only when people truly offer what they can afford. By being as generous as we can we enable others to attend teachings that otherwise couldn't. The only way we can continue to bring authentic Buddhist masters to our community is through the practice of your generosity. May all beings benefit!

If you are registering for more than one person, please complete a separate form for each registrant, including children.
